The first word of the Bible is בראשית (in the beginning). This Hebrew word is interesting. It has the word ראש (head) inside the word בית (house). The first two letters of בראשית are בר , meaning "Son". There is a "hidden" meaning in this first word of the Bible – the Son is the head in God's household.

Jesus was the Servant King who came to serve, and not to be served

Mark 10:43-45   ... whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant (44) and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be slave of all. (45) For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

Jesus washes their feet

John 13:14-15   If I then, the LORD and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. (15) For I gave you an example that you also should do as I did to you.

Numeric value of ר = 200   Interestingly, the word for "two hundred" in NT Greek is διακοσιν (365 = 5 x 73)

ב in Hebrew stands for the household of God   ב value = 2

כ in Hebrew stands for the covering (of sin) by God   כ value = 20 = 2 x 10

ר in Hebrew stands for the head of God's household   ר value = 200 = 20 x 10

God has established a household of faith.
God has provided the atonement for sin through faith in Christ.
The head of the house is Jesus – the Servant King, who stooped to serve.
